Then check out our top ten tips on how to make it an event to remember!

3. Stay Refreshed

There is nothing worse than running out of refreshments on a hot summer's day. Keep the drinks flowing by hiring one of our mobile bars, and make sure it is well stocked of course.

English summer = Rain

Don't let the rain ruin your event. Plan ahead and ensure that you are prepared for all the weather conditions the UK can throw at you by hiring a Marquee or some outdoor heaters.

7. Everyone Loves a Cocktail

Nothing shouts summer quite like a Cocktail, especially when they come in a variety of bright colours and flavours.

Why not hire a bartender with expertise in cocktail making & add a twist - let your guests make their own cocktails. They will love to experiment with flavours and techniques and the more confident of your guests could even attempt to replicate some of Tom Cruises moves from the famous movie.

4. Mum I'm Bored!!

All parents will appreciate that sometimes children can get bored very quickly.

So minimise the moaning by hiring some outdoor oversized games. Keep your children entertained whilst you get a moment to relax and enjoy a cold drink and well earned rest. They are guaranteed to love the novelty size.

Keep It Cool

There is nothing worse than warm beer and soft drinks or bottles of wine when you want to stay cool and refreshed in the hot weather. Make sure you hire in some extra chillers or create a BIG bucket of ice.

Just as important is to keep your food refrigerated. You want phone calls of praise afterwards not guests with complaints about food poisoning!

10. Preparation, Preparation, Preparation

It really is the key to that perfect event or party. Make sure you start planning things early - book your venue & hiring your event essentials first as with a full summer season ahead things get booked up early. That way you will be able to sit back and enjoy your party with your guests!

1. Have the Right Equipment

What does everyone associate with summer events? A BBQ! Instead of making do with an ordinary family sized BBQ, why not hire a Catering BBQ to impress your guests.

2. Try Something Different

So much for Glastonbury, host your own music festival. An increasing number of organisers are opting for festival format events. None of which are complete without a stage and of course a fantastic band to perform on it.

5. Not another BBQ!

Everyone has to admit once we get the first glimmer of sunshine and hot weather everyone craves the taste of barbequed meat and eating al fresco. But BBQ after BBQ can get be a bit dull so why not hire a Hog Roast Machine. We are sure your guests will be wowed by the sight of a whole glistening golden pig which tastes even better than it looks.

Apologies to any vegetarians!

Don't forget to cater for your non meat eating guests too.

9. Wedding Season

In 2013 the average couple invited 79 guests to their wedding and an additional 40 to the evening reception. Make sure your summer wedding is completely kitted out to really make it a day to remember.
